Fifth Sunday of Easter

From Fr. Adam...

Friends,

Last weekend I announced to you that effective July 1, I will be pastor of both St. Mark and St. Mel. I want to thank you all for your kind messages and comments of congratulations, confidence in me, and wishes for good luck. I am very grateful to have your support.

When July comes I intend to start writing more regularly in the bulletin. Up until now I have never really needed to because I am with you for almost every Mass, preach to you most weekends, and have the opportunity to make announcements and other comments. This will change when things transition in July. Don't misunderstand! I think it will be a healthy thing for you to have other priests preaching to you and sharing their own insights and wisdom. But I also think it is good for you to hear from me regarding the life of the parish.

Of course, I will still rely on emailing the whole parish when there are major things to announce. Unlike the bulletin which needs to be written almost a week in advance, the parish emails can be instantaneous and can reach more parishioners than those of you who take the time to read through the bulletin each week. If you're not on the parish email list, feel free to call the parish office and we can add you.

In Christ,

Fr. Adam

Eucharistic Adoration will be Friday, May 14th from 6:00pm until 7:00pm. Please come to spend some time in prayer and thanksgiving before the Lord.

Religous Education News (PSR)

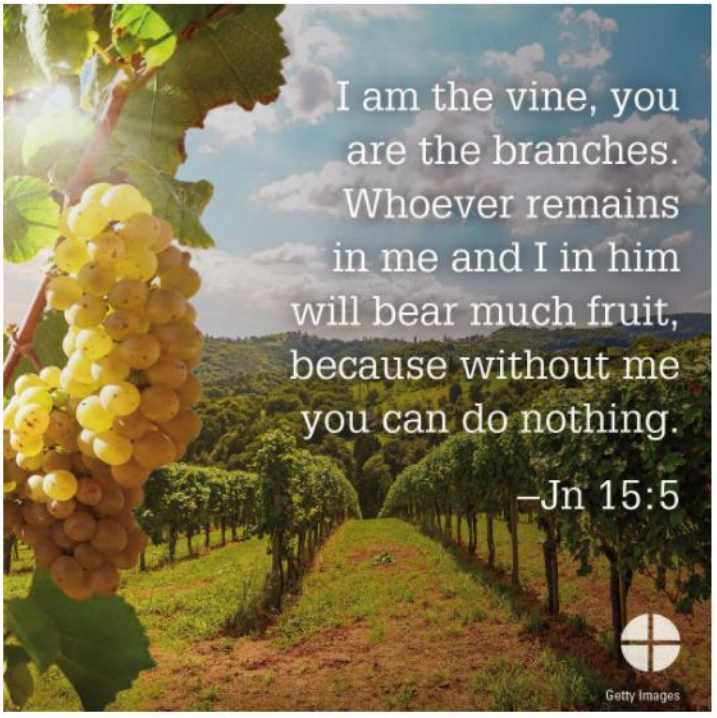
St. Mark PSR Program 2021 - 2022

Our St. Mark PSR program is on Monday evenings from 6:30 – 7:30 in the school building. We serve students in Grades 1 – 8. Students in grades 2 and 8 are prepared to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist (grade 2) and Confirmation (Grade 8), as part of our curriculum. For a student to receive these Sacraments they MUST be enrolled and attend PSR the previous year.

You can register in a number of different ways for the 2021 – 2022 school year:

1. Registration is due with payment by June 1, 2021. Returning families will receive a packet with the registration materials. The packet will be sent home with your child.
2. The materials can be downloaded from the St. Mark Church website www.stmarkcleveland.com under heading FAMILIES (at the top of the page) and by clicking the PSR tab.
3. Registration materials can also be picked up at the Parish Office.

Registration forms and payment can be dropped off at the Parish Office or put in the Sunday collection, marked to the attention of PSR.
Classes will begin in September.
For any questions or additional information, you can contact Jeannette Puckett at the Parish Office at 216-226-7577 or through email at jpuckettpsr@stmarkcleveland.com.



PRELUDE Hail Mary, Gentle Woman

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON
O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders;
in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

GLORY TO GOD
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING Acts of the Apostles 9:26—31

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 22:26—27, 28, 30, 31—32

SECOND READING 1 John 3:18—24

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Alleluia

GOSPEL John 15:1—8

PROFESSION OF FAITH
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
for us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
(bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRINCIPAL NEWS

During the Nazi era, there was a belief that Germans were "racially superior," resulting in a state-sponsored persecution of over six million Jews and other people who were perceived to be racially or biologically inferior, as well as those who had political or behavioral differences from their norm.

As part of our Social Studies curriculum, our 8th Grade class studies the Holocaust, the effects of which are still felt today. During this same time, the students read The Diary of Anne Frank and other related literature. In previous years, we were able to take the class over to the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage to see the exhibits first-hand and hear a Holocaust survivor speak of his/her memories. Unfortunately, we were not able to make that trip this year, so we did the next best thing- we did a virtual trip featuring speakers from the Face to Face Holocaust program. The speakers, Peggy Dorfman and Rachel Stoklosa, shared family stories while our students listened intently. Peggy spoke about her father who was able to escape and eventually make his way to Cleveland. She shared many of his personal items with the students including his identification card and entry documents. Rachel spoke of her grandmother's survival at a labor camp as a young child, starvation, the death march, and the scars she endured for life.

I am always interested in hearing what our students feel about fieldtrips/presentations we take, so I asked the students to write down a few of their feelings. I hope you are as moved as I was reading them:

- Ella M: I absolutely loved learning about the Holocaust. It was interesting and eye-opening. It was nice to hear two different perspectives. It is so important that people don't forget.
- Owen: The events that occurred to escape were incredible and took an immense amount of bravery. These speakers helped me understand why it is so important that it does not happen again.
- Will: I really did not know that there were people who were not Jewish helping these people escape. Peggy talked about a train conductor who waited past departure time for her father to make it to the train. This was an eye-opening experience for me.
- Owen: We need to keep these stories alive.
- Nora: Rachel talked about how her grandmother had been given a pair of boots by her mother that she kept hidden. When she was transitioning from one camp to the other, the boots were stolen from her. It is amazing that she managed to survive because I can barely walk in the snow with boots on. I am forever grateful for the opportunity to hear these two amazing speakers.
- Anna: One of the speakers mentioned to us that WE need to make a difference by spreading awareness.
- Ruby: It's difficult to comprehend what happened because I don't think I will ever understand why the Nazis wanted to kill an entire group of people simply because of who they were.
- Roger: Throughout my life, I have learned about the Holocaust, but these speakers were different. Hearing firsthand stories from descendants of survivors, in addition to reading The Diary of Anne Frank, really added perspective. It made me want to do whatever I can to prevent something like this from ever happening again.
- Ella S: I felt very connected to these stories after hearing them. I was thoroughly moved through these presentations and found it easier to empathize.
- Maggie: The stories passed down to their children and grandchildren will be forever remembered by all of us. We will never forget.
- Addy: As time goes on, there are going to be less survivors, so it was an honor to hear these families express what happened to their loved ones.
- Maddie: Similar situations are occurring today. The Black Lives Matter movement, Asian discrimination, segregation of the past, and religious quarrels makes me feel the world needs to still learn from its mistakes to ensure a safe, comfortable, and accepting environment for all.

One essay after the next carried these same messages. I have no doubt that these children were moved in ways they never expected. The woman in charge of the program was thoroughly impressed with the interest and respect our children displayed throughout the presentations. She made a point to contact Mrs. Riordan, our reading teacher, the following day to tell her she was bragging about our students to her family that previous evening.

The magic continues…. We are so blessed with great teachers, families, and children.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Eighth Grade News

It's been an unusual year with the limits of Covid-19 restrictions. The eighth graders have learned many lessons brought on by such a challenging and different school year. Here are some words of wisdom from our students as they begin their final month at Saint Mark School:

- We are all one big family, despite our differences.
- This year, staying apart has just made us closer. With so many restrictions, it's been hard to have fun, but our class has powered through. There are so many jokes and laughs and it just proves how much of a family we are.
- The laughter is very contagious in our group, and I love the teamwork we show.
- Don't wish your time away. When you're little you can't wait to grow up and be a "big kid". As you start actually growing up, you start to wish you hadn't tried to grow up so fast, and you wish you had participated more and socialized with people you aren't particularly friends with.
- Instead of paying attention to the finish line, pay attention to the race!
- No matter what, never give up!

God bless the Class of 2021!
